

Eliza Paprin

Los Angeles, CA • 404-831-8110 • elipaprin@gmail.com

EDUCATION AND HONORS

Emory University

Bachelor of Arts in Film Studies

Atlanta, GA

August 2020

Honors: Henry L. Bowdoin Scholarship (Merit-Based scholarship); Friends of Theater Emory Grant; Kappa Alpha Theta Foundation Grant

WORK EXPERIENCE

Bonch Post

Los Angeles, CA

Post PA

August 2025 - Present

- Support the owner of Bonch Post across multiple projects from ingest through final delivery.
- Manage media ingest, organization, and project setup, ensuring clean workflows for editors and assistant editors.
- Coordinate project schedules, vendor communication, and client review sessions to maintain on-time post-production timelines.
- Prepare exports, QC cuts, and handle file deliveries across multiple specifications and platforms.
- Track notes and implement client feedback during fast-turn edit cycles.
- Organize shared drives and archival systems to maintain streamlined media access across teams.
- Facilitate seamless handoffs between editorial, color, sound, and finishing departments.
- Maintain detailed documentation of assets, deliverables, and post milestones.

Independent Film Producer

Los Angeles, CA

Producer

December 2023 - Present

- Produce and coordinate multiple short film productions including: Beverly Hills Film Festival pick Idyll (dir. Austin Cauldwell, starring Mina Sundwall (Lost in Space) and Renee Herbert), Dances with Film's documentary selection Where We Played (dir. Nat Wolff and Austin Cauldwell), This Means Goodnight (dir. Peter Charney), and more.
- Oversee the full scope of creative production, collaborating with filmmakers at various stages ranging from script development to budget planning and post-production efforts.
- Develop and maintain production schedules, call sheets, budget trackers, and project documentation.
- Oversee contracts, permits, and vendor agreements; track approvals and payment status through completion.
- Coordinate equipment, managing shoot logistics, and ensuring footage and production assets are properly managed.
- Support post-production by sitting in on edits with directors and editors, providing creative feedback to help shape pacing, tone, and storytelling to align with each project's vision.
- Manage travel, locations, and on-site logistics while serving as a central liaison between talent, agencies, crew, and vendors.
- Recruit and hire crew members and secure name talent.

Zenosyne Media

Los Angeles, CA

Development & Acquisitions Assistant

May 2024 - July 2025

- Provided high-level administrative support to the CEO of a female-led production company, including rolling calls, complex calendar management, inbox monitoring, meeting coordination, and executive travel booking.
 - Prepared daily agendas outlining priorities, deadlines, and development updates; served as primary point of contact for internal team members and external partners.
 - Coordinated executive and creative meetings across departments and time zones; created calendar invites, distributed materials in advance, and captured detailed notes and action items.
 - Maintained organized digital filing systems for scripts, submissions, agreements, and development materials; tracked project statuses and follow-ups across the active slate.
 - Managed and updated a comprehensive database of incoming submissions, talent relationships, and industry contacts.
-

SKILLS

Skills: Google Suite, Microsoft Suite, Adobe Premiere, Avid, Photoshop Excel, Audio & Media Sync, Media Ingest, File Management & Delivery, Finishing & QC Coordination, Box, Airtable, Calendar Maintenance, Phone Coverage, Scheduling, Travel Coordination, Content Creation, Video Production, Film and TV Addict